Business Benefits of storeMate Point of Sale

› Sales Forecasting
Central to any retail organisation, sales forecast is essential to take informed business decisions regarding inventory, cash flow and planned growth. Forecasts can be easily generated with storeMate POS based on product, product group, product categories or your organisation's own set of definitions.

› Inventory Control
Transparency throughout the retail chain with storeMate POS delivering the necessary data at the POS for Inventory Control across the stores or at the warehouse center

› Purchasing
With storeMate POS, your organisation can replenish items efficiently and negotiate lower supplier costs. storeMate POS enables retail organisations to quickly generate purchase orders and add items on the fly.

› Point of Sale
Let's emphasize the obvious: a Point of Sale system is a retailer's daily bread and butter; to process sales, reduce pricing errors and speed up check outs. Benefits of storeMate POS include the ability to automatically look up and sell items based on pre-set sales, quantity discount and preferred price levels. storeMate POS allows multiple payment transactions, including cash, cheque, debit/credit card, loyalty and payment on account. We help you let the customer come first.

› Reports and Analysis
storeMate POS is equipped to deliver retail organisations with a complete set of reports to preview, search and print sales reports and journals by register, batch and receipt number.

A Positive In-Store Experience is crucial. Customers need a reason to buy from you. Think storeMate POS.

Action is needed. Customer analytics help create easy, personalized shopping experiences; storeMate POS offers truly integrated technology, platforms and systems to deliver seamless transaction services day after day, every day.
